Up to 10 feet (3 meters): Summer £20 Annual £40
over 10 feet (3 meters): Summer £75 Annual £140

All dinghies stored in the dinghy park must be clearly identified with the vessel or owners name

The dinghy park facility is only available to members who have no outstanding club dues and are to use only those slots that have been allocated to them by the dinghy park convener. The above fee is payable per boat and if additional boats require storage this will be reflected in the fee charged. The layout with available spaces will be on display at the clubhouse.

Club Mooring Scheme Fees:

Applicants wishing to have a mooring laid or join the club trot mooring facility must have the allocation confirmed by the moorings convener prior to making payment. There is a waiting list and new members may not get a mooring on initial request.

A fee of £400 will be charged for moorings attached to the inner or outer trot to cover the cost of the annual service. The club will inform members when this has been completed.

The club is authorised to collect crown fees for all moorings in the leased area of Cardwell bay. The current charge is £45. (£80 if NOT paid through the club)

Questionnaire

Following on from the vision workshop in 2019 the committee are working on our mission statement and 5-year plan to prepare the club for the future. A critical part of that is understanding new members' joining experience. We would be grateful if you would answer the following questions, his would greatly help the committee as we strive to strengthen the club's foundation.

1. How did you find out about the club?

Answer:

2. On a scale of 1 to 10 where 1 is poor and 10 is excellent how did you rate your joining experience. (don't hold back, we value your feedback)

Answer:

3. What could we do to improve your joining experience?

Answer:

4. What did we get right?

Answer:

Thankyou for taking the time to complete the questionnaire. The responses will be separated from the membership form and consolidated into a report for the committee and therefore will be anonymous so be as candid as you like.
